THIS ISSUE OF
LLOYD'S CLERICAL DIRECTORY

PREFACE.

LLOYD'S CLERICAL DIRECTORY was planned in a period of grave anxiety. Its editor knew how well it would serve the Church, how much it was needed, nor did he forget the certainty of misunderstanding and opposition to be encountered before his enterprise would win its way and establish itself. To him it has been profoundly interesting, in the midst of vicissitudes, to watch its growth and development, the slow, yet steady progress it has made, the gradual yielding of opposition, the decay of prejudice, until the present time. It, probably, will never be entirely free from opposition, of some sort or degree; but it is a matter of the sincerest pleasure to the editor to have the assurance that his work has won its way into the innermost councils of the Church, into the confidence of the large majority of the clergy and an ever-increasing number of the most devoted of the laity. The appeal of LLOYD'S CLERICAL DIRECTORY has never been of the sentimental kind—it has, on the contrary, been uniformly practical. Its merits have compelled attention, interest, and support, and this word of appreciation from him who has borne with so much of unintelligent and indiscriminating criticism, will, he is sure, be pardoned.

"I regard your directory as an unmitigated nuisance." was among the first bits of appreciation received during the present year. It came from a clergyman in the West. He has been of a roving disposition himself, rarely at rest, having "no certain dwelling place," all of which (or the necessity for which) he attributes, in large part, to this Directory. Not far away from this writer dwells (more certainly) a clergyman, of parts and devotion, who writes: "It is well-nigh impossible to over-estimate its helpfulness to thousands of both the clergy and laity." Quite recently, a well-known New York clergyman wrote to inform me that he had "every reason to believe, from what he was told, that this Directory had stood in the way of his securing a call to a great parish." Wishing to sound the depths of this complaint and to discover its reason, it was found that the Directory had done nothing worse toward him than give his record as he, himself had furnished it.

In the preface to the third issue of this Directory (1905) we touched on the frequent removals of some of the clergy. We expressed our opinion that there was nothing essentially amiss in removals, in themselves; but only in the possible causes for them. They may arise from various conditions not, by any means, brought about by the clergy themselves. A glance at the pages of the Directory will easily discover how many times men, who are now, perhaps, in the episcopate or in other positions of considerable responsibility, changed parishes or missions before they "settled down."

Another clergyman writes: "Permit me to again explain that my failure to respond to your frequent requests for information for the Directory is due to the fact that I am entirely out of sympathy with the purpose of the Directory. To my mind such a publication is a mistake; it puts the clergy on the level of a labor bureau and is, in my judgment, a serious mistake. Why not bring out another Directory—giving the history, etc., of the Parishes and Missions of the Church—how long they keep their clergy, how promptly they pay their salaries, Mission Apportionments, etc.? And in which some pious or impious lay pope (man or woman) makes the life of the Clergyman a foretaste of Gehenna unless he cough every time they take snuff—or jump every time they crack the whip? No, I am not a dyspeptic, nor have I any special objection to my own 'record' being known; it is far better than I have deserved—but if any one wants to know it they can apply to my Bishop, to me, or to the Vestry that has borne with me for the past fourteen years. I earnestly protest against being gazetted in your Directory, and would do so just as earnestly if you had my name and other data correct, as I understand you have not at present—this I have to take second hand, never having seen a copy of your book."

This is a fair sample of the "unintelligent criticism" referred to above. It seems scarcely credible that a man who confesses never to have seen a copy of the Directory would venture to make a criticism of any kind. He so mistakes the aim of this work as to place what he says altogether out of court. It is, however, a type of the individualism, unfortunately, not yet extinct among us, which justifies itself on grounds generally as trivial as those we have just seen, parading it not alone to its own detriment but, as in this instance, against what, for stable and sound reasons, appears to be the common good. It cannot be stated too often or with too great emphasis, that the clergy are not their own. They belong to the Church. They, moreover, are only a part of a whole to complete which the laity are necessary. It cannot be but well that the sheep know their shepherds. Nothing can be of more vital interest to a congregation than to know "all about" their pastor. He ought not to deny them this privilege. But why should not the records of the clergy be known? They are the ministers of Christ and servants of the flock of Christ for His sake. The laity know that the clergy are human, know that they are not immune from temptation and sin. Openness and frankness of record, as well as of speech and conduct, are tremendously effective with man as well as with God.

I turn, with gratitude, to the gracious words of the Presiding Bishop of the American Church: "I find Lloyd's Clerical Directory of much value and I am glad to know that it is to be issued anew. I am very grateful, and I feel sure many others are likewise so, for the diligent and faithful painstaking labor devoted to it by Dr. Lloyd." Did space allow, even were it necessary to do so, the limits of this preface would not permit even a reference to the words of appreciation, laudation and confidence received from hundreds of the clergy and laity of the Church. But this one must be given. It is written by a well-known dean and relates to an aged, most worthy priest: "Enclosed I send for Dr. —— his record rewritten, as he desired to keep the slip you sent him for his wife. The Doctor is very feeble and felt his wife and children would like to keep that little record of him and his work when he is gone. I am writing as he is not well enough to do it for himself, though he was very desirous of doing so if for nothing more than to show a proper consideration of your letter."

So great has come to be the store set on Lloyd's Clerical Directory by an increasing number of the very foremost of the clergy and laity that they do not miss an issue and declare that it is "making history." He who has carried it along since 1898 knows this well enough; but it is no small satisfaction to him to find how many there are who have come to agree with him in this most important aspect of his labors. Scores have, this year, for the first time, not only sent in their record in full, but have also ordered a copy of the Directory. It has become "inevitable," and no one, from henceforth, can be harmed by it but those clergymen, themselves, who, for any reason whatever, withhold information to which the Church in these United States is fully entitled. The information sought, it must always be noted, is not of the men previous to their entering upon their ministry in this Church, save in so far as their University or Seminary is concerned. The record sought and given is purely official.

Because of the strong and vigorous support accorded Lloyd's Clerical Directory by the the Church in America it now enters on its career as an annual. Though, this year, issued in early summer, it may ultimately be found best to send it out at the beginning, rather than in the middle of the year. This will largely depend on the advice and council of the Bishops and other Clergy which it is hoped the editor will be favored with. If this publication is to serve the Church at all it must serve it well. That the directory must, henceforward, appear annually, is proven by the fact which, no doubt, will come as a surprise to many, that there have had to be made, for no other reason than the lapse of one year, somewhere in the neighborhood of forty thousand corrections, of every kind, in the records contained in the last issue to provide up-to-date information.

Some items of information given in previous issues of this publication will be missed from the present issue. The Canadian clergy list is one. This was included in last year's issue at a large cost, with the hope that it might be an enhancement of a good purpose. But so small has been the evidence that it was a good hope and so limited, apparently, the effect on the Canadian Church, that ample justification is afforded for the abandonment, for the present at least, of the plan which included its Bishops and Clergy. Of course, should there at any time appear to be sound reasons for giving this list again, there will be no hesitation on the part of the editor to satisfy them.

So many and so insistent have been the expostulations with the editor concerning the printing of the clerical salary item with the personal record and so cogent have been the reasons urged against a continuance of it that it has been dropped in the present issue. It has, however, been retained, wherever possible, in the second portion of the Directory. To this, of course, there has not been, there cannot be, any objection. The clerical salary question is of perennial interest and rightly so. It is so variable in quality and, in many parts of the Church, so inadequate, that it has been a matter of the gravest concern to us. We mean that we would, if it were possible, move the laity (for the matter is almost wholly theirs) to make a more honest and generous provision for those who minister to them in holy things, so as to provide them, at least, against poverty, and make it possible for them to attend to their ministry without distraction. Hundreds of the clergy, with but little thought of salary, are pursuing the duties (the blessed privileges, rather than duties) of their ministry, converting men and glorifying God; but hundreds more, in different circumstances, though with no less devotion, are not able to do this. They complain but little or not at all. This may be well, so far as they, themselves, are concerned; but since the married priest is the glory (as some hold) of the Anglican Church, due care should be exercised that he become not its shame. The world, it would appear, will not forgive the clergyman who is in debt, and congregations and Bishops are, often, of the same mind toward him. Some of the clergy, for want of good business habits or training, or for reasons no less culpable than this, are handicapped by debt, it is true; but many are so crippled because the laity have so ordered salaries (and what they order herein often pay in such a disorderly way) that it would tax the skill of a Gladstone or an archangel to avoid debt, or, if entangled, to get out of it. The Bishops and laity of the Church have this matter almost entirely in their hands. The Bishops have the power to recommend the amount of the clerical salary, the laity the power to pay it and pay it promptly. Writing in this connection the editor feels that he ought to publish the following remarkable letter, which reached his desk but a short time before he began to write this preface: "I have twice declined being made an Archdeacon of another diocese—and also declined a salary of $5,000 in New York City, when living on a salary of $600, in a very poor parish, which was doing its best financially. I also declined a call to Europe which carried with it a Rectory and $5,000. This statement is made to help to overthrow the general impression among laymen that the largest call is always the loudest call to ministers. This is not always easy to do when a man has six children to educate. Though in my seventy-first year, I have just declined to be called to a larger work. The 'age limit' is largely imaginary. It is generally some other limitation. We may not have the grace to step down low enough as we grow older. When I get to be an old man and unable to do the work of the ministry I purpose to become a Sunday-school teacher. Nothing can be sweeter than the Master's Service in the almost hopeless fields of labor." The name and address of this apostolic servant of God are not given; but the editor, knowing both, is able to state that he is one of the brightest ornaments of the Church which his words alone prove him to be, if there were nothing else to be urged (and there is much). Here is a $600-a-year-man who would be hard to match by any $5,000, or even, $10,000-a-year-man anywhere. His letter ought to be a great encouragement. The work of the Master's Vineyard is always sweet to him who enters upon it with the disposition becoming him and it. Its character should not depend on the pay, at any time, whatever the amount should be, but on the unchanging privilege it provides. Natural forces are impotent in the realm of the supernatural. The true man of God will always be provided for and protected by Him. The barrel of meal and the cruse of oil lesson is for all time and, especially, for those who have entered the sacred ministry. In saying this our object is not to deprive the laity of the privilege of adequately supporting their clergy, but to encourage the clergy to be patient when they do not.

There still remain a few of the clergy whose records are incorrect or defective because of their refusal to supply the information asked for. Some, too, have written to demand the excision of certain portions of their record which they gave in the past and we printed. Obviously it is neither fair to the Church nor right for us to accede to such demands. It will be noted that we have succeeded in presenting an almost complete clerical record in the present issue, a remarkable achievement, in view of the difficulties encountered in the task of collecting information. It would be quite impossible to express the gratitude felt to the Bishops and Clergy who have so courteously sent in their returns for the present issue. It is hoped, within a year or two, that the record will be absolutely complete. We earnestly urge careful reading of the questions on the information blank. This is the only source, in general, available to us, in the preparation of the Directory, and the correctness or otherwise of its contents depends entirely upon the use made of it by those who receive it. Correspondents sometimes complain of mistakes and errors in their records or in those of others which are known to them. We are quite ready to believe that, in some instances, we are at fault, but, in a very large proportion of them, the blame must be laid elsewhere. However, each year's toll of defects grows smaller and, in due time, it must disappear altogether. In the meantime patience is asked and every item of information sent that shall aid us in our efforts to remove every possible ground of complaint or criticism.

The question of degrees must, once more, be touched upon. A good deal of care has been taken in the preparation of this year's Directory to include in its records such degrees only as are worthy. Objection will, probably, be made to some which are given. In reply it can be urged that, in some instances, we have gone to the pains to secure full reports of the questions proposed and the papers written on them in the examinations set for the granting of degrees in divinity. While, on this ground some have been rejected, others have been allowed,—the examination questions and the papers being alike able and satisfactory. Of course the standing of the recipient of the degree has been, also, taken into account. It is not the purpose of this Directory to aid and abet flimsy scholarship or to encourage the manufacture of bogus titles, indeed, from the very first, we have set our face firmly against such. It must, however, be said, in justification of some of the clergy who own degrees from sources not generally much accounted of, that they have earned them by scholarship and intellectual ability no less than by their honorable record and good standing among their brothers in the ministry. Individual distinctions have been diligently investigated and this we purpose to continue doing until a somewhat murky atmosphere has been cleared and full justice is done to those who have a pension for titles. This matter, like to that of the clerical salary, is largely the concern of the laity. They love to describe their pastor as "Doctor A." rather than plain "Mr.," though a priest is a priest.

The addition this year of Diocesan appointments in the second portion of the Directory, given in 1898, but later discontinued, will be held to be a valuable improvement, so also, it is hoped, will such other information as we have provided. The introduction by the venerable and venerated Rev. Thomas Patrick Hughes, LL. D., will, however, we feel sure, secure for this year's book a widespread interest. Nothing could be more timely, nothing could more clearly set forth for all the members of the Church the real bearing of the law of the Church on those matters which have to be provided for by canons. This introduction will make the present issue of LLOYD'S CLERICAL DIRECTORY of abiding value to the whole Church. It will be of immense help not only in curing but, what is much more needed at the present time, of preventing ills. The history of the Church in the United States has been again and again stained by quarrels and ignoble strife between rectors and vestries and between both and their bishops to the loss of prestige as well as of members, all of which might have been prevented had there been a right and due appreciation and knowledge of Church Law. The sad incident which follows, taken from an editorial in the Living Church at once illustrates our meaning and justifies the Introduction:

VINDICATED—DIED.

"A pathetic story is told briefly in the following special dispatch to THE LIVING CHURCH:

"New York, March 27.

"The Rev. Wm. N. Ackley, rector of St. Andrew's Church, Brooklyn, died late Monday morning, March 27th. Later in the same day the civil court sustained the rector's contention against a majority of the vestry of that church. Judgment given the plaintiff with costs."

This is the outcome of what appears, on its face, to be one of the most cruel attacks by a vestry upon its rector that the American Church has ever known. The story has already been told in these columns. The rector fell, broke his leg, and was disabled. The vestry asked his resignation and afterward pretended to discharge him. They, or some of them, locked the church door against the rector and on one Sunday morning the rector held service on the church steps in the open air. The case being certified to the Bishop for canonical action, the rector was sustained. The rector appealed to the civil court, to sustain him in possession of the temporalities. The court also sustained him; but a few hours before its judgment was pronounced, last Monday, the rector died."

It remains for us to add but a few words of promise for the future and hope for the present. In the Directory for 1912 we hope to present the religious denominations which have contributed to the membership of the ministry of the Church and the number of same as well as those of the clergy who favor a change in the name of the Church, the importance of which it will not be possible to exaggerate. It is hoped that whatever of error or defect there may be found in the pages which follow may be pardoned and any information that will correct it forwarded to the editor as soon as discovered.

THE EDITOR.

CHURCH LAW

The Law of the American Episcopal Church,* as it affects the relation of a pastor to his flock, is based upon: (1) The ordination vow of the presbyter or priest. (2) The law of the Church of England up to the General Convention in 1789, when the organization of the American Church practically released the clergy from their vow of obedience to the see of London. (3) The Canons of the General Convention. (4) The Canons of the Diocese or Missionary Jurisdiction.

The vow of obedience to the Bishop appeals to the clergyman, both as a Christian and a man of honor, and he will never ignore the fact (even under very provoking circumstances) that he has solemnly promised to obey his Bishop and other chief ministers, according to the Canons of the Church "with a glad mind."

This is the clergyman's "call," which so distinctly marks the difference between a minister and a layman. The layman's connection with the church extends only from day to day, and can be terminated at a moment's notice; but the priest has been sacramentally wedded to the Church for life. A Vestry may appoint or elect a Pastor, but they cannot give him a "call." A clergyman receives the notice of his election to become the Rector of a Church, and it is for him to decide whether or not it is "a call" from God.

This is the Church's view of the matter. And consequently the Rector of a Church is called for life, and his connection with the Parish can only be dissolved either by his own voluntary act, or his deposition from the ministry.

It has been thought, even by Bishops, that Canon 38 empowers them, with the unanimous consent of the Vestry, to dissolve the pastoral relations of a Rector. But this can only be done when both the Rector and the Vestry mutually agree to submit their differences to the Bishop under that Canon. The life-long tenure of the Rector is founded on the old Statute Law of the Church of England, and Canon 38 has very wisely ruled that its provisions are not in contravention of the right of any Rector or Minister. The Rectors of all the old colonial churches were appointed for life.

The Church does not allow her clergy to be at the mercy of the whims and prejudices of a congregation, but at all times the Bishop can bring an unfit clergyman to such a trial as is provided for in the Diocesan Canons.

If a Rector could be deprived of his Church just because he is not successful, there would be no reason why a Bishop should not be removed for similar reasons.

THE RECTOR.

When a Parish is vacant, one of the Church Wardens should notify the Bishop. If the Vestry fail to make provision for the spiritual oversight of the congregation, the Bishop is authorized by Canon 15 and by some Diocesan Canons to make arrangements until a Rector is appointed.

The Rector must be elected by the Vestry according to the Articles of Incorporation, and the stipend which will be paid should be definitely stated in writing.

When a Rector is elected the Wardens of the Church should notify the Bishop, and allow him at least thirty days to consider whether the clergyman so elected is "duly qualified."

When the Rector receives the notification of his election, and decides to accept it as a "call," he should carefully examine the Articles of Incorporation, and see whether there is anything contained therein which may cast doubts upon the Rectorship being a "call" for his natural life. In some Dioceses, and in some Churches, the election is not for life, and in such a case the Rector-elect should require a contract from the Vestry, making it a life appointment.

*This brochure does not pretend to be an exhaustive treatise on the subject, but merely a suggestive introduction. The whole subject is very ably treated in AMERICAN CHURCH LAW, a guide and manual for Rectors, Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church known in law as the "Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America," by the Rev. Edwin Augustine White, M. A., Presbyter of the Diocese of Newark, sometime attorney and counsellor at law, New York, 1898.

See "The Law of the Church." Geo. H. Humphrey, New York, 1895, page 29.

It sometimes occurs that a Vestry hesitates to elect a Rector until they know that he will be able to carry on the Church. A hesitancy which is quite natural, inasmuch as the Rector, in default of the payment of his stipend, has the legal power to sue the Church to the last brick. Under such conditions a Rector sometimes agrees to accept an election with the understanding that he will resign the Rectorship at the close of the first year, if the Vestry cannot raise his stipend. The Bishop should be notified of the arrangement. If a Vestry elects its Rector for only a year or any stated period it is distinctly illegal.

The Rector has complete control of the Parish. He has charge of the Church building, and is entitled to the keys not only of the Church, but of the Parish buildings. In the event of a dispute he alone can claim possession of the keys, and in the case of not being able to obtain possession of all the keys he may legally alter the lock so as to give him sole possession.

He has the right to appoint a clergyman as his personal Curate, whose salary he must pay. If he asks the Vestry to pay the Curate's salary the assistant should be elected by the Vestry for a stated time, not less than a year, and on a stated stipend, and the Rector should send to the Bishop a certificate signed by himself and the Church Wardens.

Canon 20 (formerly canon 19) permits the Rector of a Church, with the sanction of the Bishop, to invite Christian men who are not Ministers of the American Episcopal Church to make addresses on special occasions.

The Rector must keep Registers of all baptisms, confirmations, marriages, and funerals. And also a complete list of the names of persons who are communicants and of families connected with the Church, and a regular record of the services and the preachers with the amount of the collections and offertories.*

The Rector is manifestly responsible for every cent placed upon the altar as an offering to God, and is therefore fully justified in having the offerings and collections counted in his presence in the Vestry before they are made over to the Treasurer of the Parish, and the amount should be entered in the "preacher's book."

THE OFFICE OF INDUCTION.

Although the Office of Induction is not in common use in the American Church, it seems necessary that some form should be observed to demonstrate to the laity that the Rector has possession of the keys of the Church, and is in lawful possession of the sacred edifice. In the Church of England the usual method is by virtue of a mandate under the seal of the Bishop to the Archdeacon or some other clergyman who shall take the hand of the incumbent and laying in it the key of the Church, shall pronounce these words: "I induct you in the Rectory of ——— with all its profits and appurtenances."  The Rector then opens the door, offers his devotions and tolls the bell. Dr. Dix, in his "History of Trinity Parish, New York," says the ancient form derived from the English use has always been observed in the Parish in the presence of the Church Wardens and Vestrymen, and the event is recorded in the Vestry minutes. If the ill-informed Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Andrew's Church, Brooklyn, had witnessed such a ceremony, they would probably have not had the audacity to shut their Rector out of his Church. The office of Institution in the American Prayer-Book is optional and not obligatory.

LETTERS DIMISSORY.

It is the duty of the Bishop to accept a letter dimissory obtained by a clergyman elected to a Parish. But the acceptance of a letter presented by a Minister not so elected is left by Canon 16 to the discretion of the Bishop, who may or may not accept it, according as he sees fit. Both in England and in this country a clergyman cannot officiate more than a few Sundays without a license from the Bishop of the Diocese.

MINISTERIAL CONFIDENCES.

Although the American Episcopal Church does not authorize Auricular Confession, according to the methods of the Roman Church, and has also omitted the rubric in the "Communion of the Sick," which in the English Prayer-Book directs the sick person to be moved to make a special confession of his sins, after which if he humbly desire it the Priest shall pronounce an absolution; it is by no means evident that the American Church actually forbids the unburdening of a sin-oppressed soul to the Priest by confession. But the necessity for the Priest to take such a confession in some formal and authoritative manner is of very great legal consequence. For the New York Code of Civil Procedure in Section 833 provides: "A clergyman or other minister of any religion should not be allowed to disclose a confession made to him, in his professional character in the course of discipline enjoined by the rules or practice of the religious body to which he belongs."

---

*The English Church distinguishes between the "offertory" at the Holy Communion and collection at any other time.

Hook's Church Dictionary in loco

And by custom long established, in English law, the conversation between Minister and penitent (even if it should disclose a crime) has been regarded as privileged. A witness is never called upon to repeat it. The late Rev. A. D. Wagner of Brighton, England, positively refused to repeat in evidence the confession of Constance Kent, who had murdered her little brother, and the Court sustained him. Similar instances in America have been recorded.

THE DEPOSITION OF A PRIEST.

The American Church, in its present canons, does not distinguish between deposition, degradation and deprivation, and a Minister who for conscientious reasons resigns his sacred office does so under the stigma of degradation. When a committee of three clergymen and two laymen depose a Priest, (or Deacon), for heresy, they practically constitute themselves into a quasi ecumenical council. If Keble, Maurice, Robertson, Kingsley or Pusey had been clergymen in the American Church, in their day, they would probably have been "deposed." The mode of procedure in the trial of a clergyman is unfortunately left to the regulation of the respective Diocese, and is the most defective part of its whole ecclesiastical system. A settled court of justice should be established consisting of Bishops only.

Holy Orders are indelible, but a clergyman may be degraded, deprived or suspended. It is not in the power of the American Church to depose a Priest ordained by a Bishop in England, nor can a Priest deprive himself of the disabilities of his office* until he has availed himself of an act of Parliament, now in existence, and has declared himself a layman.

The Archbishop of the Russian Church, in New York, reordained a deposed clergyman of the Protestant Episcopal Church because he said the Protestant Episcopal Church had made him a layman.

DEACONS.

The position of a Deacon is clearly defined in Canon 17. His ministrations must be definitely under the superintendence of a Priest. He cannot be the Rector of a congregation, nor be permitted to accept a Chaplaincy in the Army or Navy. He must not pronounce the Absolution in the office of Morning and Evening Prayer. He receives the oblations of the people and presents them to the Priest. He can administer the consecrated Bread and Wine to the people in the Eucharist.

A Deacon has from the earliest times administered Baptism. The rubrics of the English Book of Common Prayer for Holy Matrimony and the Burial of the Dead clearly indicate that these offices should be said by a Priest, but in the American Prayer Book the word "priest" has been changed to that of "minister," with the evident intention of permitting a Deacon to read them. A similar change has been made in the Office for the Visitation of the Sick. Dean Hook says, "The Deacon is permitted to baptize only in the absence of the Priest, and perhaps the same remark may apply to the other occasional offices."

LAY READERS.

Canon 22 states clearly under what conditions a lay reader can be appointed. He is appointed by the Rector and licensed by the Bishop, and he must not wear the dress appropriate to a clergyman ministering in the congregation. As the Roman and Anglican Churches allow lay baptism in urgent cases, he may baptize when no Minister can be had.

A SACRISTAN.

The Office of Sacristan is very ancient, and should be retained in a Parish Church in some form or other by the appointment of a devout woman to take charge of the sacramental vessels and the Church vestments under the superintendence of the Minister. Altar Guilds or Committees do not seem to exactly meet the requirements of the ancient usage.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS, GUILDS, ETC.

The Rector has the exclusive direction and control of the Sunday School of the Parish, and the appointment of its officers and teachers, who are his assistants in the work. He is also the head of all Guilds, Societies, Brotherhoods and Institutions within the Parish. They cannot be formed without his consent, and he is at liberty to disband any of them at any time.

With regard to Sunday Schools. When they were first established they were intended for poor children who could not obtain religious instruction at home, and in England, even to the present day, the children of the higher and privileged classes are not sent to Sunday Schools. The duty of the Pastor to catechise the children, as enjoined by the rubrics of the Book of Common Prayer, should take precedence of all Sunday School instruction. The children of all the families in the Parish, whether they attend Sunday School or not, should assemble in the church once a month to be instructed and examined. The Sunday School should not take the place of parental instruction at home. If the Rector cannot obtain suitable teachers it would perhaps be better for him or one of his assistants, lay or cleric, to instruct the whole school in a congregation.

*He cannot, for example, become a lawyer, a member of Parliament, or serve on a jury until he avails himself of the act.

THE MUSIC OF THE CHURCH.

The music of the Church is under the control of the Rector. He appoints the Organist and Choirmaster, and is responsible for the personnel of the Choir, and for the hymns and anthems sung in the church.* This is strictly according to the custom of the Anglican Church, and in accordance with Canon 45 of the American Church. The Vestry, however, has the control of the expenses of the Choir, and for such a Music Committee may be appointed. The Rector has charge of the key of the organ.

CHURCHWARDENS.

These are very ancient officers of the Church, and by the common law of England, they are a lay corporation to take care of the property of the Church, and may with the sanction of the incumbent, sue and be sued as the representatives of the Parish. By Canon 118 of the English Church, "All churchwardens and questmen shall be chosen by the joint consent of the Minister and the parishioners, if it may be; but if they cannot agree then the Minister shall choose one and the parishioners another." Unfortunately in England a "parishioner" may be a dissenter, and it sometimes happens that one of the Wardens elected by the people is not a churchman. In this country Canon 52 rules that the qualifications for this office shall be such as the Diocesan Canon shall permit or require. The State Law of New York rules that a Warden must be a communicant. (But what the Civil Law has to do with such a matter it is difficult to say! President Madison, if he had been Governor of the State, would have vetoed such a Statute.) Propriety suggests that a Warden should not only be a communicant, but a person loyal to the Rector.

While the Church has recognized the title of Senior Warden in the Institute Office, and in the Canons of some Dioceses, the title has in it usually more of honor than of practical import. But the office of Warden is clearly one of spiritual import and should not be ignored.

VESTRYMEN.

The Vestrymen of the American Church are the same officials as the ancient Questmen, or the modern Sidesmen of the Church of England, who were elected by the Parish to assist the Churchwardens in the management of the temporalities of the Parish Church. They were cited to attend the Bishop's Visitation. And as there is nothing to show that the old law in this respect is obsolete, the Bishop of the American Church has a legal right to "cite" the Churchwardens and Vestrymen to be present when he visits the Parish.

THE VESTRY.

The Vestry is usually made up of two Churchwardens and eight Vestrymen, but the law is regulated by the Articles of Incorporation, or the Canon Law of the Diocese, or the Statutes of the State, if any, on the subject. The Vestry should be baptized persons and men of religious character, and the Churchwardens must be communicants of the Church. A complete Vestry consists of the Rector, the Church Wardens and the Vestrymen.

It is a well established principle of law that Vestrymen have no official powers as such, save when assembled in a Vestry meeting duly called. They can only act collectively, and not as individuals.

The members of the Vestry are elected according to the provisions of the local Canon Law and the number is regulated by these laws. Their powers at a Vestry meeting under the call of the Rector are:

1. To hold in trust the Church edifice and all Parish buildings, and to allow the Rector exclusive use of the same.

2. To have complete control over the pews and sittings of the Church, and to fix the rental of the pews, if any.

3. To have, hold and use the income and rents and profits, if any, of the Church property, for church purposes.

4. To make by-laws for the management of the property and the regulation of the affairs of the Church.

5. To raise funds necessary for the payment of the Rector's fixed stipend, and also for the expenses of the Parish.

6. To elect a Rector when the Parish is vacant.

*The rubric of the American Prayer Book orders that the offertory anthem should be in the words of Holy Scripture or of the Book of Common Prayer.

Hook's Church Dictionary in loco

7. No meeting of the Vestry is legal which is not called by the Rector, when there is one.

8. In every legal Vestry meeting there must be the Rector, one of the Wardens, and a sufficient number of Vestrymen to form a quorum. For these are the three integral parts of a Church Vestry.

9. No real estate can be sold by a vote of the Vestry without the written sanction of the Rector.

10. A Clerk of the Vestry should be elected, who will keep a record of all meetings, and carry on the correspondence of the corporation. A Treasurer should also be elected, and a Board of Auditors.

11. If, for some reason, a Vestry is not elected at the appointed time (Advent or Easter) the old Vestry will remain in power.

12. In a Diocese in the State of New York a Vestry can fill up a vacancy by electing a Vestryman.

THE SEAL OF THE CHURCH.

Inasmuch as no property can be sold or mortgaged without the sanction of the Rector, it is very evident that the Rector and not the Treasurer should have charge of the corporate seal, if there is one. The late Mr. Humphreys says that a corporate seal is not absolutely necessary.*

CHURCH MEMBERS.

It should be clearly understood that it is not Confirmation, but Baptism, that confers the privilege of becoming a Church member. The mistake of regarding only actual communicants as "Church members" has gradually been introduced into the Church from the nonconformists. Hence while the Roman Church counts all its baptized as "members," the Protestant Episcopal Church only reckons the actual communicants.

In making up a list of communicants all those who are confirmed and who are entitled to receive the Holy Communion should be placed on the list, and in recording the "members" of the Parish, all who have been baptized. Even the little infant is a "Church member," being a member of Christ.

THE PARISH MEETING.

There will seldom be an occasion for a meeting of the congregation, except once a year, for the election of a Vestry. When such meeting is held the Rector must preside, and when votes are recorded he alone is the judge of the validity of the votes recorded. The right of the Rector to preside has been questioned in the State of Delaware, but here is an instance of failing to recognize the law of the Church of England as binding on the Church of America when it has not been changed by any Canon of the Church, or by any Statute of the State. When there is no Rector the Church Wardens cannot call a Parish meeting, because it is a remnant of the old Vestry in England and not a meeting of the members of a congregational body. There are still a few Parishes in England: Holy Trinity, Whitehaven, and St. James Clerkenwell, London, for example, where the Vicars are elected by the parishioners.

CHANGE OF NAME.

A change of the name of a Church can only be made by the vote of the members of the congregation. The Vestry should pass a resolution fixing upon a name and then submit it to a Parish meeting, either at the next annual meeting or at a special meeting. It must then be verified as the Civil law directs.

CONSECRATED CHURCHES.

The law of the Church of England recognizes no place as a Church until it has been consecrated by the Bishop.

Canon 46 of the American Church rules that: "No consecrated Church or Chapel shall be removed, taken down or otherwise disposed of for any worldly or common use, without the previous consent of the Bishop, acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee of the Diocese."

THE PARISH.

In England a Parish is that circuit of ground which is committed to the charge of a Pastor, and it is still customary in some parts to mark the Parish limits by walking along them in procession on Holy Thursday (Ascension Day) led by the Rector or Vicar. These perambulations are still kept up in some Parishes. In America a Parish usually stands for a congregation, but gradually it is returning to the ancient application of the term as in Canon 51, which reads: "Where Parish Boundaries are not defined by law, or settled by Diocesan Authority, under Section 2 of this Canon, or are not otherwise settled, they shall be defined by the civil divisions of the State as follows: Parochial boundaries shall be the limits as fixed by law, of a village, town, township, incorporated borough, city, or of some division of any such civil district, which may have been recognized by the Bishop, acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, as constituting the boundaries of a Parish."

*Church Law, 1895, p. 21.
Which accounts for the great disparity of statistics.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER.

The regulations of Canon 40 regarding the removal of communicants in good standing from one Parish to another is no part of the system of the Mother Church, which regards a Parish as territorial, consequently as soon as a communicant or even a baptized member of the Church enters the Parish limits of another Rector or Vicar he becomes ipso facto a member of his new Parish, and the Minister of that Parish is responsible to God for the care of his soul, transfer or no transfer. The laity at present make these Letters of Transfer an excuse for not identifying themselves with the Church. People will remain for years before they ask for their "letters." It would seem far wiser that when a person leaves the Parish the Rector should immediately send the name to the Pastor of the other Parish, commending him to his personal care, because they are not "Congregationalists," but "Episcopalians."

UNIFORMITY OF WORSHIP.

The General Convention, meeting under the guidance of the Spirit of God, has been so saved from "all error, ignorance, pride and prejudice," that it has never attempted to enforce uniformity of ritual, and in America we are not quarrelling as to what point of the compass we shall stand when we worship, or the robes we shall wear, or other matters which have so hindered the growth of the Mother Church. In seeking for unity we do not contend for uniformity.

The decisions of the English Ecclesiastical Courts, dating after the year 1789, have no authority in matters of ritual in this country.

THE INCORPORATION OF A CHURCH.

While it is not absolutely necessary that a number of persons assembling together for public worship should be incorporated according to the Civil law, the benefits of incorporation are so evident that they need scarcely be stated. It is a protection of the property of individual members of the congregation from any liability for the indebtedness of the religious society. The law of Incorporation differs in every State. But it is the duty of the Rector in applying for the deed to see that it is as simple and as little complicated as is possible. Mr. Humphrey, in his "Law of the Church in the State of New York," gives a form of Certificate of Incorporation which, with a few necessary changes, should meet the requirements of any State in the Union.

The Rector should carefully scrutinize all the deeds, and see that there is nothing contained therein which may invalidate any of the rights of a Rector.

THE EPISCOPAL VISITATION.

According to Canon 137 of the Church of England, the Bishop was required to visit a Parish once in three years, and this rule has been enjoined in Canon 13 of the American Church. A yearly visitation is, however, the custom. The purposes of this visitation are clearly defined in the second section of the Canon. It is for the purpose of examining the condition of the congregation, inspecting the behaviour of the clergy, administering the rite of Confirmation, preaching the Word, and celebrating the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and not for Confirmation only. This Canon clearly implies that the Diocesan shall enquire into the financial condition of the Parish; whether the salaries have all been paid, and also see that the registers are duly kept. It is the duty of the Churchwardens and the other members of the Vestry to be present during the Bishop's visitation. The old law of the Church of England, before the year 1789, requires them to be present to answer any questions which may be put to them by the Bishop. Such was the origin of the Questmen. This law, not having been revoked in the American Church, still holds good ,and Churchwardens and Vestrymen should be "cited" to appear before the Bishop at his visitation.

THE APOSTOLIC RITE OF CONFIRMATION.

The Episcopal Church very wisely leaves the question of age and fitness of candidates for Confirmation to the judgment of the Pastor. The late Bishop Alfred Barry writes: "The Rite of Confirmation, without losing the prominence of its true ancient idea, as a strengthening by the gift of the Holy Ghost of those who after being baptized, had grown up to years of discretion, was also used 'since the Church thought fit to order,' for the subsidiary purpose of a solemn re-dedication of themselves, confirming the vow taken for them by their Sponsors. It was accordingly ordered that they should be instructed and examined in the faith like candidates for Adult Baptism."

As the Church of England and the Church of America recognizes the validity of Roman Orders, it does not seem necessary that persons who have been confirmed by Bishops of the Roman Church (or even of the Eastern Church) should be again confirmed unless the candidate especially desires the Bishop's Blessing. There are no "empty forms" in the Church, and consequently when we pray for the gift of the Spirit of God we expect to receive it. A very distinguished Presbyterian layman, more than eighty years of age, quite unexpectedly walked up to the Bishop when he was confirming a number of young people, and begged for the Bishop's blessing, although the venerable old saint did not know his Church catechism.

The rubric which enjoins that "there shall none be admitted to the Holy Communion until such time as he be confirmed, or be ready or desirous to be confirmed," has troubled many minds. But there is a consensus of opinion among very eminent Bishops that in this rubric the Church makes her disciplinary rules for her own members, and that the occasional presence of people belonging to other religious bodies is not forbidden. In India, where there are only Church of England Chaplains in many stations, it is found impossible to enforce the rule.

In the Church of England it has been the custom for females to receive the rite of Confirmation with the head covered, in accordance with the Apostolic injunction of I. Cor II., 13: "Judge ye among yourselves is it seemly that a woman pray unto God unveiled."

THE SOLEMNIZATION OF MATRIMONY.

Canon 39 of the American Episcopal Church on the subject of Holy Matrimony is clear and definite. It is as follows:

1. Ministers of the Church shall be careful to secure the observance of the law of the State governing the civil contract of marriage in the place where the service shall be performed.

2. (a) No Minister shall solemnize a marriage except in the presence of at least two witnesses.

(b) Every Minister shall without delay formally record in the proper register the name, age and residence of each party. Such record shall be signed by the Minister who solemnizes the marriage, and, if practicable, by the married parties, and by at least two witnesses of the marriage.*

3. No Minister, knowingly after due inquiry, shall solemnize the marriage of any person who has been or is the husband or the wife of any other person then living, from which he or she has been divorced for any cause arising after marriage. But this Canon shall not be held to apply to the innocent party in a divorce for adultery. Provided, that before the application for such remarriage a period of not less than one year shall have elapsed, after the granting of such divorce; and that satisfactory evidence touching the facts in the case, including a copy of the Court's Decree, and Record. if practicable, with proof that the defendant was personally served or appeared in the action, be laid before the Ecclesiastical Authority, and such Ecclesiastical Authority, having taken legal advice thereon, shall have declared in writing that in his judgment the case of the applicant conforms to the requirements of this Canon; and. Provided, further, that it shall be within the discretion of any Minister to decline to solemnize any marriage.

The Church, in calling the office the "Solemnization" of Matrimony, seems to have anticipated the time when the civil contract should be verified by a Magistrate, and the Church give her sacramental blessing to that contract, for Holy Matrimony is both sacramental and mystical in its character. It is the sacramental vow of a life-long contract, and it is a holy mystery typifying the union between Christ and his Church.

There is no reason why an American clergyman should solemnize an unsuitable marriage, for his services are not absolutely required for the joining of two persons together in wedlock. In the case of divorced persons it seems cruel to demand of them a life-long contract before the Altar of the Lord when a previous contract has been broken. Very few Episcopal clergy will marry a divorced person.

The law regarding marriage is defined by the Statutes of each State. If a Priest doubts the statements made by the parties, he can examine them on oath. Although there is no law or rubric on the subject, it is the custom not to celebrate a marriage in Lent or on a fast day.

It has been decided by English law that Banns of marriage should be published after the Nicene Creed in the morning or after the second lesson in the evening. In very few States are Banns required..

In England fees are obligatory, and in this country it is more dignified for the bridegroom to present the offering as an oblation when he gives the Priest the ring. Both the ring and the offering can then be presented as an oblation on the altar.

*In the Church of England the signatures are always signed on the register immediately after the marriage, the bride signing her maiden name.

*The rubric The American Prayer Book rules that Banns of Marriage shall be published after the Nicene Creed and not after the second lesson as was the general custom in Parish Churches for many years.

THE CIVIL COURTS.

The right of the Civil Courts to interfere in ecclesiastical matters is very limited. The general rule is that such rights exist only where there are conflicting claims to church property or funds, or to the use of them, or where civil rights are involved.

In the year 1811 President Madison vetoed two bills passed by Congress, one to incorporate an Episcopal Church in the District of Columbia, and the other granting a piece of land for a Baptist Church in the State of Mississippi, on the ground that the bills were in conflict with the clause which forbids Congress to make any law respecting a religious establishment.

In the year 1910, when the congregation of Trinity Church, New York, appealed to the Legislature at Albany regarding the closing of St. John's Chapel, the reply was very similar. It is in fact a question whether some of the Civil Statutes regarding Church matters are not contrary to the spirit of the Constitution of the United States.

In the Diocese of New York a Parish spent many thousands of dollars regarding the possession of the Church seal, whereas it seems that a Church seal is not necessary. A Rector in the Diocese of Long Island was shut out of his Church by his Vestry, and the matter was carried into the Civil Courts, whereas the Rector would have been justified in forcing the lock in the presence of a policeman, and anyone interfering with him should have been charged with a misdemeanor. A Rector has as much right to the key of his Church as he has to the key of his own house.

WHAT OUR CHURCH STANDS FOR.

The Right Rev. Bishop Peterkin, of West Virginia, has compiled a handbook which explains what the Protestant Episcopal Church stands for, in such clear and incisive English that he who runs may read:*

We confess our faith in the words of the ancient Catholic creeds.

We retain the Apostolic Orders of Bishops, Priests and Deacons.

We assert the just liberties of particular and national Churches.

We provide our people, in their own tongue, with a Book of Common Prayer.

THE BENEDICTION.

The Benediction of the Anglican-American Church, which is the Pax Vobiscum from the Epistle to the Philippians, C. IV. 7v., with the addition of the ancient form of Blessing in the name of the Trinity, has its parallel in the Eastern Liturgies of Constantinople, and Alexandria, but was not found in Western Liturgies until it was introduced into the Book of Common Prayer in 1549. It is peculiarly our Anglican Benediction for the close of either morning or evening service. Hymn 32 in the Church Hymnal was composed with especial reference to it:

> "We stand to bless Thee 'ere our worship cease,
> And lowly kneeling, wait Thy word of peace." **

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew

In the United States of America.

Incorporated by the Act of Congress, Approved May 30, 1908.

OBJECT. The spread of Christ's Kingdom among men, especially young men.

RULES. The Rule of Prayer is to pray daily for the spread of Christ's Kingdom among men, especially young men, and for God's blessing upon the labors of the Brotherhood.

The Rule of Service is to make at least one earnest effort each week to lead some man nearer to Christ through His Church.

THE JUNIOR DEPARTMENT

OBJECT. The spread of Christ's Kingdom among boys, and to train its members for work as men in the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

RULES. The Rule of Prayer is to pray daily for the spread of Christ's Kingdom among boys and for God's blessing on the labors of the Brotherhood.

The Rule of Service is to take some part in the work, worship or study of the Church, and to try each week to bring other boys to do the same.

Organization of the Brotherhood

The Brotherhood does not take the place of other parochial organizations, but its members are expected to work in and through them. An ideal Senior Chapter will have among its members representatives of the Vestry, the Sunday School, the Choir, the Bible Class, the Men's Club and other parochial organizations. An ideal Junior Chapter will have enrolled members of the Sunday School, the Choir, the Boys' Club, and the like.

The Rector of the Parish is ex-officio head of the Brotherhood, but the Chapter's affairs are generally conducted by laymen, the usual board of officers being a Director, a Vice-Director, a Secretary and a Treasurer. The Chapter may be composed of two or more men or boys, the average Chapter having from ten to fifteen members.

Work of the Brotherhood

The work of the Brotherhood includes Bible Classes, Lay reading, Sunday School Work, Hospitality Work, Visiting, Mission Work, Prayer Book Distribution, the Increase of Confirmation Classes, Men's Communions, Hospital Visiting, Hotel Visiting, Special Men's and Boys' Services, Follow-up Work, Schoolboys' Scripture Reading, and the like.

It is understood that each member, in engaging in any of the above features of Parish work, shall do so with a distinct effort to help individual men or boys nearer to Christ through His Church.

WHY THOUGHTFUL CHURCHMEN
SHOULD READ

The Living Church

1. It is an endeavor to stimulate thought among Churchmen concerning the intellectual issues at any time before the Church.

2. It has a definite editorial policy, and is at the same time frank and outspoken, but courteous and fair.

3. It gives full opportunity for the presentation of views differing from those of the editor.

4. It presents papers on themes of interest in religious and sociological subjects. An important Department of Social Welfare, edited by CLINTON ROGERS WOODRUFF, has lately been commenced.

5. It presents the News of the Church in readable form. There are regular London, New York, Philadelphia and Chicago News Letters, frequent letters from Jerusalem, and items of news from every part of the United States.

6. There is a department devoted to Church Music, edited by G. EDWARD STUBBS, Mus. Doc.

☞ Don't take your view of Church Matters from the Secular or Interdenominational Press.

Sample copies free. Terms $2.50 per year. To the clergy, $2.00.

Kimball Pipe Organs

have been built in hundreds of the most prominent churches throughout the United States.

Among Episcopal churches which have recently installed Kimball Pipe Organs are:

St. Margaret's Episcopal Church, Washington, D. C.
Grace Episcopal Church, Richmond, Va.
Church of Incarnation, Great Falls, Mont.
Grace Episcopal Church, Chicago.
Christ Episcopal Church, Macon, Ga.
Calvary Episcopal Church, Memphis, Tenn.
St. Paul's Cathedral, Fond du Lac, Wis.

The Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, 1909, gave HIGHEST AWARD to Kimball Pipe Organs, and made special mention of the Kimball Tubular Pneumatic Action (U. S. Patent) stating it "has solved a great problem that has vexed organ experts for years."

THE PENSION AND RELIEF OF CLERGY, WIDOWS AND ORPHANS.

LEGAL TITLE, "GENERAL CLERGY RELIEF FUND."

National, official, incorporated. Accounts audited regularly by public official auditor under direction of Finance and Audit Committee. All Trust Funds and Securities carefully deposited and safeguarded in one of the strongest Trust Companies in New York City. Wills, legacies, bequests, gifts, offerings earnestly desired.

There are only two organizations provided for in the General Canons and legislation of the Church, namely. the Missionary Society and the General Clergy Relief Fund—the Work and the Workers.

About 550 beneficiaries are on our present list. Sixty-six out of 80 dioceses and missionary districts depend alone upon the General Clergy Relief Fund.

Money sent directly to the Treasurer of the General Fund is put to immediate use, i. e., to Pension or Relief, or to earning interest if so designated by contributor. All contributions go to the use for which contributed. Royalties on Hymnals pay expenses.

Money can be designated by contributors for Current Pension and Relief; Permanent or Endowment Funds; Special Cases; Automatic Pensions at 64.

THE SIMPLIFIED PRAYER BOOK

Costs $25.00 Per 100

SAMPLE COPY 30c. Postpaid

Is intended for the special purpose of being placed in the hands of strangers unfamiliar with the Morning and Evening Prayer of the Episcopal Church. It enables such to take full and active part in everything.

WHAT THE BISHOPS SAY:

Bishop Boyd Vincent:

"I can believe that the publication might be found very useful."

Bishop Lewis W. Burton:

"I should think it would greatly increase the efficient conduct of our services."

Bishop Samuel Cook Edsall:

"The Simplified Morning and Evening Prayer, it seems to me, may fill a genuine need."

Bishop Tucker:

"The work is admirably done and will answer my purposes."

The publishers will send any clergyman any reasonable number of these little books on trial for 60 days—send no money. Our idea is for you to try the book in your work. Correspondence invited.

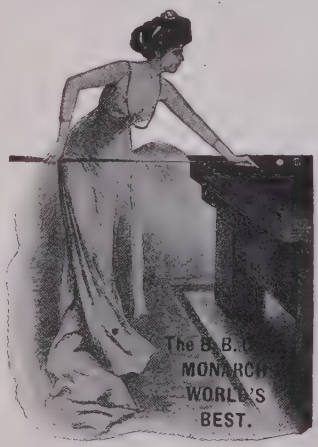
THE WORD'S STANDARD QUALITIES IN

Carrom and Pocket Billiard Tables



It's not the name that has made the Tables good; It's the Tables that have made the name good—the symbol of excellence in qualities, and kept it in the front rank for over sixty years—since 1840, when your father was a boy.

We give special attention to the equipment of CHURCHES, SOCIETIES, Y. M. C. A.'s LODGES, CLUBS and similar institutions, where the BEST in Billiard Tables and Accessories are required and demanded.

QUALITY IS THE ONLY TRUE TEST OF CHEAPNESS.

If interested write for handsome colored art catalogue illustrating the latest designs. Our Billiard Material Catalogue also sent on request. It is a convenient reference guide to all supplies and repairs needed for the upkeep of the Billiard Room.
